MEMORANDUM to -

The Central Secretariat.

It is advised that the bilateral stage of negotiations between Australia and Newfoundland has been completed. No requests were lodged by Newfoundland in Australia. Consequently no response list is submitted.

It is understood that the results of these negotiations are subject to any adjustment that may be required in the light of other negotiations as they are completed and are to be incorporated in the schedules to be annexed to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

DATE: 7th OCTOBER 1947.

COMMONWEALTH OF AUSTRALIA

RESPONSES TO UNITED KINGDOM REQUESTS FOR TARIFF CONCESSIONS
FROM AUSTRALIA

BASE DATE:

The third and fourth columns of the Schedule show the British Preferential most-favoured-nation tariff rates operative at the base date. The Government of the Commonwealth of Australia has nominated 15th October, 1946, as the date for establishing maximum rates of preference in accordance with paragraph 3 of Article I of the Draft General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

SPECIAL WAR DUTY:

At the base date, 15th October 1946, a special war duty of Customs at the rate of 10 per centum of the amount of duty of Customs payable on any dutiable goods entered for home consumption (other than goods covered by Items 18, 19, 23 and 229(C) in the Schedule to the Customs Tariff 1933-1939) was superimposed on the duty normally payable. This Special Duty has since been withdrawn.

EXCHANGE ADJUSTMENT:

The letters "E.A." appearing in the third column of the Schedule signify that the British Preferential Tariff rate shown is subject to reduction in accordance with the provisions of the Customs Tariff (Exchange Adjustment) Act 1933-1939, i.e., as regards the United Kingdom to a reduction of $\frac{1}{4}$ of the ordinary Customs duty or 12½ per cent, of the value of the duty (whichever is the lesser).

PREFERENTIAL RATES OTHER THAN THE BRITISH PREFERENTIAL TARIFF:

Unless otherwise indicated in this Schedule, the existing tariff position of countries or territories enjoying preferential rates other than the British preferential tariff rate shall remain unaltered.

LATEST M.F.N. RATES:

On tariff items where the preferential rate only is being negotiated, the most-favoured-nation rate will, of course, be adjusted in accordance with the provision in paragraph 3(a) of Article I of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, which sets forth that the most-favoured-nation rate is provided for the margin of preference shall not exceed the difference between the most-favoured-nation and preferential rates existing on the base date, 15th October 1946, in respect of Australia.
