Dear Joe,

U.K. Requests on U.S.A.

We have found that through an oversight we failed to send the G.A.T.T. Secretariat copies of a supplementary list of concessions that the U.K. requested last year from the U.S.A. Although there is no great point in their circulation at this late juncture I enclose copies in case you should think it desirable that they should be circulated to complete countries' records.

GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TARIFFS AND TRADE

1956 TARIFF NEGOTIATIONS - GENEVA

APR 2 1 1956

United States Tariff Concessions Agreed To in Bilateral Negotiations with the United Kingdom

(Subject to Approval by the President of the United States)

NOTE: Descriptions of products are subject to such changes in terminology as may be necessary in the translation of the statistical descriptions into definitive United States tariff nomenclature to be set forth in the consolidated United States schedule of concessions to be annexed to the 1956 Protocol of Supplementary Concessions.

Reductions in duty will be made in three annual stages, the first stage to become effective not later than June 30, 1956. In the event that any specified rate becomes effective and subsequently becomes ineffective by reason of action taken pursuant to paragraph 3 (ii) of the said Protocol of Supplementary Concessions or any other reason, the later stages of reductions will not be made effective until the rate which became ineffective has been restored and has been in effect for a total period of one year.

This list includes compensation for action taken by the United States on August 18, 1955 pursuant to Article XIX of the General Agreement with respect to certain products described in item 371 (first) of Part I in Schedule XX (Geneva - 1947) of the General Agreement. In the event that the action taken by the United States with respect to such products is modified or terminated by action which shall result in lower rates of duty for any of the products described in item 371 (first) of Part I of Schedule XX (Geneva - 1947), the United Kingdom and the United States will consult promptly with each other with a view to determining what action should be taken in the interest of maintaining a general level of reciprocal and mutually advantageous concessions. For that purpose, the said compensation shall be deemed to have consisted in two thirds of the 15-percent reduction on new automobiles (U.S. tariff paragraph 369(b), 1954, statistical class No. 7900.500).

The items identified by an asterisk (*) are under negotiation with another contracting party or parties and may therefore be subject to reconsideration in the light of the outcome of such other negotiations.

Items identified by two asterisks () are part of a classification other related parts of which are under negotiation with another contracting party or parties. Such items may therefore be subject to reconsideration in the light of the outcome of such other negotiations.

PROVISIONAL LIST OF CONCESSIONS IN RESPECT OF REQUESTS MADE BY THE UNITED STATES ON THE UNITED KINGDOM TARIFF

NOTES:

1. The descriptions shown in column 3 of the list are in many cases provisional but every effort has been made to ensure that they provide an accurate indication of the products to which the concessions relate.

2. It is proposed in the final version of the list to provide the authentic descriptions not only in terms of the present United Kingdom Tariff but also in terms of the Brussels Nomenclature.

3. Except where Part 5 or Part 6 is quoted in column 2 of the list, the concessions shown in column 5 do not relate to duties under those Parts of the Tariff. Where Part 5 or Part 6 is quoted in column 2 of the list, the concession shown in column 5 relates only to the duties under Part 5 or Part 6 respectively.

United Kingdom Delegation
19th April, 1956.

The final version of this list as submitted by the Government of the United Kingdom is contained in Registry File VIII-1-34
